An Act to extend the Protection of Copyright in Prints and Engravings to Ireland. [13th August 1836.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for more effectually securing the Property of Prints to Inventors and Engravers, by enabling them to sue for and recover Penalties in certain Cases: And whereas it is desirable to extend the Provisions of the said Act to Ireland; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act all the Provisions contained in the said recited Act of the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, and of all the other Acts therein recited, shall be and the same are hereby extended to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

17 G. 3. c. 57.

Provisions of recited Act extended to Ireland.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any Engraver, Etcher, Printseller, or other Person shall, within the Time limited by the aforesaid recited Acts, engrave, etch, or publish, or cause to be engraved, etched, or published, any Engraving or Print of any Description whatever, either in whole or in part, which may have been or which shall hereafter be published in any Part of Great Britain or Ireland, without the express Consent of the Proprietor or Proprietors thereof first had and obtained in Writing, signed by him, her, or them respectively, with his, her, or their own Hand or Hands, in the Presence of and attested by Two or more credible Witnesses, then every such Proprietor shall and may, by and in a separate Action upon the Case, to be brought against the Person so offending in any Court of Law in Great Britain or Ireland, recover such Damages as a Penalty on engraving or publishing any Print without Consent of Proprietor.

Jury on the Trial of such Action or on the Execution of a Writ of Inquiry thereon shall give or assess, together with Double Costs of Suit.

C A P. LX.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Customs.

[13th August 1836.]

‘ WHEREAS several Acts were passed in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for consolidating the Laws of the Customs, and it has been found necessary to make certain Alterations and Amendments therein: Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the same shall come into and be and continue in full Force and Operation for all the Purposes mentioned therein.

Commencement of Act.

Regulation.

Goods the Property of Persons resident Abroad may be entered by Bill of Store if Property be not changed.
3 & 4 W. 4. c. 52.

II. ‘ And whereas by one of the said Acts, intituled An Act for the general Regulation of the Customs, Provisions are made permitting the Re-importation of certain Goods legally exported from the United Kingdom, and it is expedient to alter such Provisions in the Manner herein mentioned;’ be it therefore enacted, That any Goods which have been legally exported from the United Kingdom, and which shall afterwards be re-imported into the same, the real Proprietor thereof being then absent therefrom, shall upon such Re-importation be permitted to be entered by Bill of Store, provided the Goods be such as are entitled to that Privilege, on Production of a Declaration subscribed by such real Proprietor setting forth the Identity of the Goods so exported and so returned, and that he was at the Time of Exportation from the United Kingdom, and will be at the Time of Re-importation thereinto, the Proprietor of such Goods, and that the same have not during such Time been sold or disposed of to any other Person; such Declaration to be made before British Consul, Vice Consul, or other British Authority residing in or near the Place of Residence of such real Proprietor, and upon such further Proof of the Identity of the Goods as the Commissioners of the Customs shall require, and upon Compliance with all the other Regulations required by Law on the Entry of Goods by Bill of Store.

Repeal of Provision in 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 52. as to certain wrecked Goods.

III. ‘ And whereas by the said last-mentioned Act it is provided, that all such Foreign Goods, Derelict, Jetsam, Flotsam, and Wreck, as cannot be sold for the Amount of Duty due thereon, shall be delivered over to the Lord of the Manor, or other Person entitled to receive the same, and shall be deemed to be unenumerated Goods, and shall be liable to and shall be charged with Duty accordingly: And whereas it is expedient that such Provision should be repealed;’ be it therefore enacted, That so much of the above-recited Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Customs, or for the Officers of the Customs acting under their Directions, to inquire into and receive Proof of the Extent to which any such Goods shall have been damaged, and to Commissioners of Customs empowered to abate Duty.
